

A warm, golden-hour photograph of three children and an adult. On the left, a young girl with blonde hair is partially visible. Next to her is a young girl with dark skin and curly hair, wearing a red shirt, who is looking intently at a book. To her right is another young girl with dark skin and curly hair, also looking at the book. On the far right, an adult with short reddish hair and glasses is leaning in, looking at the book. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with warm sunlight filtering through, creating a bokeh effect.
